We are authorized to announce HON. T. M. JONES as a candidate for Judge of the Criminal Court for the district composed of Giles, Maury, Marshall and Williamson. Election first Thursday in August next.

For Supreme Judge.
In response to the expression of a popular desire, sufficiently general and influential to entitle us to make the matter a subject of public concern, we hereby announce ourselves as candidates for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court, made vacant by the resignation of Hon. T. A. B. Nelson. Election first Thursday in August next.

ATTENTION.
It might be well to remember, you have 1000 acres of good land to sell, or to the undersigned, at the ranch, a mile south of Pulaski, on the Giles and Marshall. Election in August next.

J. P. Rankin.
Offers 242 acres of valuable farm lands with a good orchard and elegant modern improvements, one mile North West of Pulaski, for $12,000, $2,000 cash, $1,000 per annum for eight years with interest, or a liberal discount for cash. A good farmer with $2,000 cash can make the place pay for itself. Possession given immediately or at end of year. Come and see me while I am in the notion.

L. E. ARNOLD has just received direct from New Orleans a large stock of Louisiana Sugar and molasses, which he offers for sale at a small advance above cost. He keeps always on hand every thing in the grocery line and sells at low prices April 9th.

It is believed that ROSENBAUM & LOVEMAN have the prettiest, largest and cheapest stock of Dress Goods, Trimmings, Clothing, Hats, Boots, Shoes, &c., in town. Come and see it if it is so.

Death of a Former Citizen.
We learn through a friend of the death of Rev. Henry B. Warren, D. D., of Paris, Texas. Dr. Warren was formerly a citizen of Giles County, and many of his friends will regret to hear of his death.

It is believed that ROSENBAUM & LOVEMAN have the prettiest, largest and cheapest stock of Dress Goods, Trimmings, Clothing, Hats, Boots, Shoes, &c., in town. Come and see it if it is so.

The State Democratic Convention.

The Democratic Executive Committee has issued a call for a State Democratic Convention at Nashville on the 9th of May. There are only twenty days intervening between this and the day of that Convention, and there is no time to be lost by the County Committee in arranging for a County Convention. The various districts should hold primary meetings and appoint delegates to the Pulaski meeting, which must be held at least by the first Monday in May. There will be a strong effort to defeat Gov. Brown for the gubernatorial nomination, and Giles must go in solid phalanx to the State Convention.

Business Rebus.
By arrangement with Messrs. CHANE & Co., the inventors, we have obtained exclusive control of this popular and attractive system of advertising, in Giles, Lincoln and Lawrence. We have ten different rebuses, representing ten different departments of trade, to-wit: Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, Drugs, Hardware, Furniture, Groceries, Jewelry, and Photographs. The exclusive right to use either of these rebuses in Giles county may be obtained from us by immediate application. One man only in each line of trade can use them, and there can be no infringement of the patent. Those who fail to get control of them will be forever excluded from their use. We will make liberal arrangements with our contemporaries of Fayetteville and Lawrenceburg, if they would like to have control of the matter in their respective counties. In a few weeks we will have plates also for four other branches of trade, including Stores and Tinware, Books and Stationery, Hotel, etc., which may also be obtained by the first applicant.

Burglars! Burglars!
On Tuesday night some burglars entered the saloons of Finley & Moore and B. R. Ezell. They effected an entrance by means of a key or some sort of burglar's tool, and breaking open the money drawers extracted from each about twelve or fifteen dollars in change. They also attempted to break in the door of H. K. Brannan, but failed. Suspicious looking individuals have been seen around town for several days and it is probable the robbers may be apprehended. This is the first visit of the season to Pulaski, and we would urge upon our people to keep themselves in readiness to shoot down as they would a dog these midnight robbers and put an end to their nefarious depredations.

Mechanic's Meeting.
At a preliminary meeting of the Mechanics of Pulaski last Monday night about twenty-five or thirty persons were present. The meeting was organized by calling S. C. Mitchell to the chair and appointing Thos. Watterson Secretary. The Chair appointed one person from each trade to confer with all their fellow-workmen in order to get a full attendance at a meeting appointed to be held on Monday, April 29th. The Association expressed a desire that all persons who understand their trades should join the union, and a full attendance is most earnestly desired at the meeting to be held as above.

Rape, Murder, Arrest and Delivery.
Three negroes entered the house of a Mr. Wilson, living near the Tennessee River in Limestone county, Ala., Sunday or Monday night, and after robbing his wife or daughter, took Mr. Wilson away with them and it is supposed murdered him. The Sheriff of that county succeeded in arresting the negroes on Tuesday near Decatur, and while taking them to Athens on the train Tuesday night, the train was stopped about one mile from Decatur and the negroes taken from the Sheriff, and it is supposed, liberated. The Conductor, Mr. Bailey, was admonished to keep them, and the reports are confused, but from what we can learn the above is substantially correct.

Personal.
Our office was honored with the presence of W. L. Wenley, Esq., of Nashville, on Friday last. Mr. Wenley is an extensive furniture manufacturer of Nashville, and an energetic, public-spirited business man, to whose enterprise and indomitable energy the great success of the Industrial Exposition may be largely attributed. At present he is Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. of Tennessee, and visited the Lodge at this place in company with P. G. Sire E. D. Farnsworth, on Friday night last.

Dr. J. C. Roberts has removed his residence to the Lester place 1 1/2 miles north of town. These who know his valuable professional services however will find him, most of the time, both day and night, at his office in town, unless professionally absent.

We are requested to say that Judge Jesse G. Frazier, U. S. Claim Commissioner, will be in Pulaski on next Monday, 22d inst.

Jas. M. Moulton was in the city yesterday. He is now connected with the house of Daniel Dougherty, distiller, and dealer in liquors, Nashville.

It is believed that ROSENBAUM & LOVEMAN have the prettiest, largest and cheapest stock of Dress Goods, Trimmings, Clothing, Hats, Boots, Shoes, &c., in town. Come and see it if it is so.

On same day, Reed Smith was fined $5 and cost for assault and battery upon Reed Smith.

On same day, J. J. Marshall was fined $25 and costs for assault and battery upon Reed Smith.

On the 15th, before Esq. Abernathy, Felix White, Jr., col., was committed to jail to await trial for larceny.

Before Esq. Alexander, James Carter, col., assault and battery upon Allen Taylor, col., $5 and cost.

Ben. Rodes, col., larceny of fourteen ears of corn, bound over to Court.

Drs. Edmundson and Grant.
We inadvertently neglected last week to call attention to the card of Drs. Edmundson and Grant. They represent some of the very best insurance companies in the United States and take risks on life and property.

The double column advertisement of the Nashville Life Insurance Company appears again this morning, with these gentlemen as District Agents. Persons desiring to insure cannot do better than call upon them.

Its Purposes and Objects.
This was the theme of an address delivered at Antioch Hall on Saturday night last by P. G. Sire E. D. Farnsworth, to a large audience of ladies and gentlemen, including quite a number of Old Fellows. Notwithstanding only a few hours notice had been given, the hall was comfortably filled at an early hour, and during the time between the opening of the doors and the arrival of the brotherhood, the audience was regaled with music by the Pulaski Cornet Band. As the procession entered the hall, with the speaker and the presiding officer of Pulaski Lodge at the head, it was greeted with a stirring voluntary by a portion of the Methodist and Presbyterian choirs, accompanied by the deep thrilling tones of the organ, under the skillful hand of the organist. After the opening Ode by the Brotherhood, assisted by the choir and organ, and prayer by the Chaplain, Dr. Roberts, P. G. S. Farnsworth delivered his address. The speaker's manner was deliberate, self-possessed and pleasing, while he set forth the aims and objects of his noble order in a masterly and convincing speech of about an hour's length. He first alluded to the origin and growth of Old-Fellowship in America. Only fifty years ago it originated in Baltimore with only five members, and today it numbers over four hundred thousand active members in America, while its arms are rapidly stretching all over Europe. By a most astonishing array of statistics he exhibited the practical results of Old-Fellowship in educating, clothing, feeding and protecting the orphan, the widow and the indigent of every land. He dwelt at some length upon the objects of the order, and took some pains to remove the few objections that had been urged against it. Old-Fellowship was but another name for charity, for this was its primary virtue, the foundation upon which it was built. It inculcated the principles of Friendship, Love, Truth, Charity, Benevolence and Sobriety, and no true Old-Fellow could be deficient in either of these virtues. With great fervency he appealed to his brothers to live up to the great principles of the order, and press forward in the great work they had engaged to do.

After a few impromptu remarks by Dr. Roberts, the closing ode was sung—the benediction pronounced, the procession returned to the Lodge room, and the audience dispersed with a Doxology. "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

It is believed that ROSENBAUM & LOVEMAN have the prettiest, largest and cheapest stock of Dress Goods, Trimmings, Clothing, Hats, Boots, Shoes, &c., in town. Come and see it if it is so.

Almost Drowned.
We learn through a letter from a friend at Poplar Hill of an accident which happened to two pedlars named Corn and Salmon the night of the heavy rain of the 12th. They were traveling in a vehicle with one horse attached, and were collecting up barter during the day, which delayed them until in the night, and in driving to Esq. Gilbert's house where their goods were stored they had to cross his spring branch. It was very dark when they reached it and they did not see that it was very much swollen, and when they had gotten in the middle of the stream the vehicle was struck by a fence which was being carried away. They were carried down the stream some fifty yards, when they jumped out and to the shore, losing getting safely to the shore. They lost a considerable quantity of feathers, hides, etc., and the wagon was badly broken up and scattered down the stream.

Meeting of the Board.
At a meeting of the Board last Saturday night, called by the Mayor for the purpose of taking some steps for the laying off of grounds for a common burial place, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That the Mayor appoint a committee of three whose duty it shall be to select and have the grounds bought of Dr. White as a new cemetery enclosed with a durable plank fence, and also have the same leveled and properly laid off in four equal parts, with streets between, for the purpose of selling off lots both to white and black, half of which is to be reserved as a common burial place.

Resolved, That any person desecrating any public grave yard within the limits of the Corporation, by pulling flowers or injuring shrubbery thereon, or by turning stock into the same, shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars.

The lot to be divided into four equal parts, one-fourth of which is to be sold in lots to white and another to colored persons, which it is thought will pay for the grounds and laying off the same, the other half to be reserved as a public burial place.

CLISHMACLAVER.

The question now is, who will take the benefit of Robins? Rory Taylor has shown us his magnificent lot of gold pens just received. They are beautiful and embrace all kinds of ladies' and gentlemen's pens. Efforts are being made by the dealers of that locality to have the Post Office removed to Judge Walker's building on 1st, Main street, next door south of Haynes House.

Jo. Peary has the handsomest set of glasses for his prescription case we ever saw. There are two, beautifully lettered, on each side of a large mirror in the center of the case.

Jas. Arch Richardson contemplates going in partnership with Meredith Miller, he being expert at tying gentlemen's shoes on the streets. Boyd Young, Esq., and Col. Wm. J. Hill were their first "objects."

Giles county should not be made to help pay the Alabama claim. About 500 acres of her best land was washed down into Alabama by the late freshet, and we think Alabama has no more claims on Giles County.

Five cents a "shine" was the customary price, but Meredith Miller having no opposition in his line has raised it to a quarter. Remember the name and place—Meredith Miller, south side square on a goods box. Twenty-five cents a shine, only.

Our clever young friend, J. L. Peary, with the suavity for which he is distinguished, placed "ye local" under obligations by making him the bearer of the finest bottle of pure cologne ever in this city, to his better half. The recipient of this handsome present gratefully returns thanks, and wishes that his life may always be characterized by acts as urbane.

A liveried servant, whose paraphernalia was studied with gilt boots bearing the monogram "P. E. C.," and whose bearing proclaimed the dignity and suavity of the man he serves, knocked at the sanctum door of this office last Monday and on being admitted presented to our astonished gaze and watering mouth a waiter covered, with linen dipped in Arctic snows, which upon being removed displayed a quinine of goblets sparkling and overflowing with an effervescent liquid that the gods were wont to quaff, and nestling 'neath the fumes exhaled from the delightful beverages a snow-white bill-donze peeped out, which being opened was found to contain the following: "Friends of Citizens Office, Devil and all—Can't afford to send that quart you advertised for, but am in for this much drink."

Respectfully, "PUTIN'S EDITOR OF CITIZEN."
